

Technology.

Solutions.

Results.

Strategic Asset Management Services

Overview

“Technology Associates offers the type of diverse capabilities and attention to individual client needs that is required for project success.”

“We have over 350 of the best subject matter experts in strategic asset management, IT and business process engineering, environmental compliance and risk management, geospatial information systems, telecommunications, power solutions, and security.”

Technology Associates is a leader in providing Strategic Asset Management Services and Enterprise Mobility Solutions. We are committed to long term partnerships and maintaining a stable customer base. Our understanding and experience in applying best practices and choosing the appropriate standards, based on a customer's business needs, are essential elements that contribute significantly to our delivery of a quality product and project success.

Our Maximo Expertise

As an IBM partner, we bring value to asset-intensive industries, providing a high level of expertise in the implementation of the IBM Maximo software product. Our understanding of Maximo ensures that the exacting standards of quality are met in each of the solutions delivered to our customers. Specific expertise:

- » All Versions of Maximo
 - » New Implementations
 - » Upgrades
- » Maximo Tier 1 Support
- » SQL Server and Oracle
- » IBM Websphere and BEA Weblogic
- » Workflow Development
- » MEA and Custom Integration
- » Geographical Information Systems (GIS)
- » Actuate and BIRT Report Development
- » Maximo Mobility
- » Maximo Training

Strategic Asset Management Services

"Technology Associates' Strategic Asset Management Services leverages technological advances to deliver state-of-the-art and future-ready solutions."

"Technology Associates has implemented, upgraded, and integrated Maximo solutions across various industries within the Commercial and Government sectors for small, medium, and large scale operations."

Our Partnerships

IBM Tivoli software

Our Team

Technology Associates' Strategic Asset Management Services (SAMS) team is comprised of enterprise asset management and technology professionals providing full cycle implementation and support services for a wide variety of customers in numerous industry verticals. Our services improve business process management, enhance enterprise asset awareness, and aided decision-making -- while reducing operating costs. Our team's innovative approach enables our customers to utilize the right technology applied through appropriate solutions to get the results they expect.

Our Services

Business Process Services

Asset Management Program Review, BPR/BPA, Gap Analysis, Cost Benefit Analysis, Requirements, Organizational Readiness, Application Selection, Quality Assurance

Implementation/Upgrade Services

Project Management, Software System Design, Development, Implementation, Upgrade, Integration, Customization, Reporting, Training, Operation & Maintenance

Technical Services

Interoperability Solutions, Data Migration/ Conversion, Geospatial Information Systems (GIS), Mobility Solutions, Custom Programmed Solutions

Solution Support Services

Direct Customer Support for Implemented Solutions, Level 1 Support for the Maximo EAM Suite of Products, Resale of all IBM Maximo Software